Tasted by Charles Curtis MW (at Burgundy, 10 Nov 2021)

This wine is from the vineyards high on the slope above premier cru La Comme at the northern (Chassagne) side of the village, and the elevation helps the wine retain a lively acidity. Coupled with the rich extract of the year, it is attractive indeed - almost a mix of lemon curd and apple tart. The texture is pleasantly creamy and the balance makes this eminently worth discovering.
